

The Wanamaker Store.

Valentines

HERE is a collection to come and see, and here is a collection in which to find the exact expression of whatever shade of feeling seeks relief. Here are misses that touch every depth and shoal of the affections, and sweep through the entire gamut of sentiment, from the timidly suggestive, through the tempestuously passionate to the serenely confident. Alas that such works of doggerel genius should be subordinated to the mere paper that conveys them! Yet it is but the soul-searing truth that most people look rather to the beauties of the lace-paper and gilding and lithography than to the beauties of the versification. So we are well prepared to satisfy on that score as well. Prettier Valentines than these you have never seen, nor more of them. The newest idea of all you will find in these hand-painted sachets, having the advantage both as a vehicle for tender expression, and of some earthly use.

Prices? 5c. to $8. The Sachets, $1.35 to $10.

Two Strong Shoe Items

Men's Shoes at $2.20. Women's Shoes at $1.70.

The Shoe Store is at high speed, but these two offers will set a faster pace than ever for the time they last. Even for this store, where surprises have become the expected thing, these are unusual.

The Men's Shoes at $2.20 are $3.50 and $4 shoes. The maker intended most of them to retail at $4, and most of their line did.

The toe-shapes, the leather, the finish and all the little niceties of shoe perfection are such as will instantly spell "Satisfied!" in your eyes, and your decision will echo the word.

In the lot some grand cold-weather shoes with double soles, as well as an abundance in patent leather, laced and buttoned. Shoes without a fault.

The women's shoes at $1.70 would be instantly admitted to the $3 class in any shoe store, however particular.

Of Kidskin, chrome-tanned, smooth, bright and tough, welted and stitched soles of solid oak-tanned leather. Two new toe-shapes, kid or patent leather tips, laced or buttoned. Sizes from 2½ to 7, and all the commonly wanted widths.

Men's Neckwear At 50c.

There are nearly a thousand of these scarfs, in Ascots, very wide Imperials, large Puffs, and generously-sized Tecks and Four-in-hands. The quality and character of them may be gathered from the fact that their prices have been up to $2.50, $2, $1.50 and $1 each. We have piled them together—the whole thousand—in a gorgeous heap of richness. You may burrow in it at your pleasure, and take any scarf that pleases you at

Fifty Cents.

Men's Fancy Shirts at 50c. Fifteen hundred of these shirts, made of madras, percales and cheviots, in colors and patterns that you have proved to us you prefer, with cuffs attached or otherwise, as you like. The previous prices on these shirts have been $2, $1.50 and $1. They are all laid out together by sizes where you can almost wait on yourself. Take any shirt you like at

Fifty Cents.

Men's Overcoats, $12 of these scarfs, in Ascots, very wide Imperials, large Puffs, and generously-sized Tecks and Four-in-hands. The quality and character of them may be gathered from the fact that their prices have been up to $2.50, $2, $1.50 and $1 each. We have piled them together—the whole thousand—in a gorgeous heap of richness. You may burrow in it at your pleasure, and take any scarf that pleases you at Ten Dollars Each.

If you want an overcoat you'll get no better chance than this. Just the common-sense garment you would pick out for steady wear; made from the hard-surfaced kerseys, blue or black, and lined as you like to have them. It will be a wise economy to buy one for next year, for next Winter coats like them will be $15 and $18. You may have these at Twelve Dollars Each.

Trousers for Particular Men Perhaps you have reason to know that the great trouble with the usual run of low-priced trousers lies in the patterns. The "loud" and unsalable kinds naturally find their level on the bargain counter.

This is a difficulty that will not pertain to these trousers of ours, for we don't have the loud and unsalable patterns at any price. Consequently, when we tell you that there are 300 pairs of trousers in striped cheviots at $3 a pair, that are good $4 values, and a number of new patterns in fine wovesteds at $5 a pair, that are good $7 sorts, you can come expecting to find desirable trousers as well as desirable bargains.

250 Boys' Suits At $5 Each These are what are left of our high-priced suits for boys. Fine little suits, in the medium weight dressy blue serges and the fancy cheviots that are right now and for some months to come into the Spring.

Beautifully trimmed with colored silk soutache. Without regard to previous figures, choose from these to-day at Five Dollars.

Men's Gloves Six hundred pairs of a first-class street glove for men, at seventy-five cents a pair. They will not last through a fair day's selling, for most of them are dollar and a half gloves. Some were a dollar,—you can take whichever you prefer.

All in tan, with patent clasp.

Corsets for Stout Figures The originators of the Lillian Corsets provided a range of choice absolutely complete. Careful attention was devoted to the special needs of those who find the larger sizes necessary, and the style No. 160 speedily became a favorite for such wearers. It is very low in the bust and long over the abdomen, and is made with a webbing for support, appearance and comfort.

Also a full line of P. D. Corsets, in light weight moire silks, charming for Spring and Summer wear, at $6, in pink, white and blue.

We carry the other popular makes, too, at prices ranging from 50c. up to $20.

One-Half such pieces generally cost.

A few dozen pieces are left Silverware from our recent remarkable selling of quadruple plated silverware. We have brought them together in a special place at Broadway and Tenth Street, and let you choose from a really wide variety in Butter Dishes, Syrup Jugs, Baking Dishes, Cracker Jars, Salts and Peppers, Casters, Cream Jugs and such pieces at
